

WEDDING.

CHAMBERLAIN—BERESFORD.

A very pretty wedding was solemnised in the St. Mary's Church, North Fremantle, at 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon last by the Rev. Mr. D. D. Moore. The contracting parties were Mr. Harold John Chamberlain, of Arthur's Head, and Miss Florence Elizabeth Beresford, the youngest and only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Beresford, of North Fremantle (late of Parramatta, N.S.W.). The bride was given away by her father, and looked charming in pearl cream silk, the skirt being full with rows of and intervals, and the kimono bodice was trimmed with silver-corded tassels, and the bride also wore a coronet of orange blossoms and tastefully embroidered veil, and carried a shower bouquet of tuberose and fern. The chief bridesmaid was Miss May Chamberlain, sister of the bridegroom, who looked charming in eau-de-nil silk voile, trimmed with applique, and the hat to match; and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and fern, and wore a gold brooch, the gift of the bridegroom. The second bridesmaid was Miss Laura Cranswick, who wore a mouseline-de-soie dress and pale-blue chiffon hat, and carried a shower bouquet of fern and carnations, and also wore a gold brooch, the gift of the bridegroom. The train-bearer was Miss Violet Cranswick, and looked sweet in white pongee muslin trimmed with Valenciennes and pale-blue streamers, and carried a basket of carnations and fern. The best man was Mr. Webb Thomas. After the ceremony the breakfast was held in the Albert-hall, North Fremantle, where a number of friends sat down to drink the health of the bride and bridegroom. After the breakfast dancing was indulged in until the early hours of the following morning. During the interval 30 guests sat down to an excellent and delightful supper. Credit is due to the ladies who provided the same. At 1 a.m. the party dispersed, well satis-

1 a.m. the party dispersed, well satisfied with the evening's enjoyment.

Following are a list of the many handsome presents to the bride:—Bridegroom to bride, gold brooch; bride to bridegroom, diamond stud; Rev. D. Moore, Prayer-book; Mr. D. Beresford, piano; Mrs. D. Beresford, bedroom suite; Mr. C. Chamberlain, handsome eight-day clock; Mrs. C. Chamberlain, handsome lamp; Miss May Chamberlain, silver teapot; Miss E. Chamberlain, pair pictures; Mr. and Mrs. Churchill, tea service and teapot; Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer, set carvers; Mr. and Mrs. Keane, half-dozen silver forks; employees of Boan Bros., handsome tea service; Mr. H. Sparrow, handsome oak clock; Mr. and Mrs. Binns, silver teapot; Mr. Webb Thomas, silver breakfast cruet; Mr. J. Grosse, silver butter dish; Mr. H. Grosse, tea service; Mr. and Mrs. E. Richardson, pair vases; Mrs. and Miss Gordon, set jugs; Mrs. J. Woods, butter-dish and vases; Mrs. R. Gordon, pair pictures; Mr. Craig, handsome hand-painted picture; Mrs. and Miss Nicholson, set glass dishes; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dunne, fruit dish and glasses; Mr. G. Parsons, silver serviette rings; Miss M'Kenzie, half-dozen dinner knives; Mr. J. Singleton, silver vases; Mr. and Mrs. S. Cookson, carved oak picture; Mr. and Mrs. Snowden, hand-painted mirror; Miss A. Finnigan, set glass dishes; Miss Walker, tea service; Mrs. W. Jones, set decanters; Miss Cranswick, pair vases; Mrs. Cater, vases and set d'oyleys; Mrs. Eughis, handsome cushions; Miss Ives, vases.