

DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT

The death took place on Sunday last at the Northam Government Hospital, after a protracted illness, of Mrs Anne Brennan, of Irishtown, Northam. The deceased lady spent the greater part of her life of 78 years in the Toodyay and Irishtown district. The chief mourners were her daughter Mrs Hegarty, West Northam, Mrs Julia Brennan, and Mr Patrick Brennan, son. The first portion of the burial service was read at St. Josephs Church, Northam, and the remainder at the graveside in the Catholic portion of Northam Cemetery, the Rev. Father O'Donnell officiating. Mr Purslowe had charge of the funeral arrangements.
