MAISEY—CAMPBELL

The marriage of Mr A. J. Maisey, a well-known farmer of Dowerin, and Miss F. P. Campbell, also of Dowerin, was celebrated at Old Dowerin Methodist Church, on Wednesday, November 20. The officiating minister was the Rev. W. Green. The church had been tastefully decorated by friends of the parties, of whom a large number witnessed the ceremony. Misses A. Campbell (sister of bride) and Edna Place acted as bridesmaids, and Mr S. A. McDowell as best man. The bride wore a dress of cream striped silk voile, made in piece effect, with court train, elaborately trimmed with silk applique, with bead trimmings; wreath of orange blossom, with silk embroidered veil. Miss A. Campbell wore a dress of dark grey voile over cream satin, profusely trimmed with navy blue satin and tiny buttons. Miss Edna Place's dress was of pale green ninon de soie, trimmed with long ruchings of silk. After the ceremony breakfast was partaken at the house of Mr and Mrs R. C. Maisey, at which the usual toasts were proposed and honored. In the evening a social and dance took place, which was very enjoyable.
