

WEDDING

Veitch—Bateman

(Contributed)

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Methodist Church, Beverley on Tuesday 16th April, the happy couple being, Kathleen, elder daughter of Mr. & Mrs. C. Bateman, of East Beverley, and Ronald, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Veitch late of Balkaling. The officiating minister was the Rev. Milton Davies, of York.

The bride, on entering the church, on the arm of her father, made a charming picture, dressed in a simple frock of white broadened moire faille, with finger tip veil edged with lace, adorned with a coronet of orange blossom; she carried a beautiful bouquet of white frangipanni, roses and carnations, complete with miniature blue slipper attached to ribbon of bouquet. She was attended by her cousin Ruth Peters and her sister, Margaret, who were daintily dressed alike, in aqua moire taffeta, with pale pink accessories; each carried a sweet posy of pink carnations and roses.

The bridegroom was attended by two college friends, Ron Stewart, and Bruce Freeman.

Mrs. T. Burgess very ably officiated at the organ.

The church was very delicately decorated with pink roses and Easter lillies to tone with the bridesmaids. Those responsible were cousins of the bride. After the ceremony the bridal party visited the grandmother of the bride, who was unable to be present at the wedding.

About 100 guests adjourned to the Lesser Hall, where they were received by the parents of bride and groom. The bride's mother looked charming in a grey-blue alpaca crepe frock, cut on simple lines, with black accessories, while the groom's mother was tastefully attired in a smart frock of blue crepe, finished with beading and black accessories. They both wore a spray of red roses.

The guests were entertain-roses.

The guests were entertained to a sumptuous wedding breakfast, where the usual toasts were proposed. Mrs. Burgess very ably assisted at the piano. A very beautiful cake, daintily iced and decorated by Mrs. C. Hastings and Miss Hawkesley, was cut by the happy pair.

The evening was rounded off by a dance in the main hall, where the younger friends of the bride and groom were received and entertained. Later in the evening the young couple changed into travelling outfits, the bride wearing a smart green frock on tailored lines, with sunray skirt with which she wore a burgundy felt hat and gloves. Black shoes and handbag completed her attire. After partaking of supper "Auld Sang Syne" was sung and the happy couple took their departure, amid showers of confetti. They were the recipients of many beautiful presents and a large number of cheques.
