

DEATH OF MR JAMES GIBLETT

Another link of the old identities of W. A. was broken on Tuesday afternoon last when Mr James Giblett, passed away at his farm Cutherling, near Goomalling, after a long and painful illness. The deceased was born at Burlong, on February 10, 1850, and was most highly esteemed. About 50 years ago he was married to Miss Lucy Martin (who still survives him) and they reared a family of three sons and four daughters, all of whom are living, viz., Harry, Northam; Bert, Cutherling; Lionel, Sydney; Mrs E. Wilkins, Cutherling; Mrs W. Huggett, Bridgetown; Mrs P. Moloney, Konnongerring, and Mrs Jas Dudley, Mt Joy. He also leaves a widowed sister, Mrs Maria Beazley. The late Mr Giblett settled at Cutherling about forty years ago, where he acquired a very fine farming and grazing property. He was exceptionally successful, more especially in the line of sheep raising. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon, the first portion of the service being read at St John's Church. The cortege left the church, and the remains were followed by a large number of relatives and friends from all parts of the district to the Anglican portion of the Northam cemetery where the Rev J. Mason again conducted the service. The chief mourners were Bert and Harry, sons, Mesdames Wilkins, Dudley and Maloney, daughters; Messrs S. J. Dudley and P. Mahoney, sons in law; Mrs J. Beazley, senr; sister; and Mr John Beazley, nephew.

The duties of pall bearers were carried out by Messrs W. Forward, J. French, J. M. Carroll, A. Martin, D. J. Morrell and Kendall.

A large number of wreaths and floral tributes were forwarded by sorrowing relatives and friends.

Mr J. W. Purslowe carried out the funeral arrangements.
